NEW BEGINNINGS....

Do you have any memories of your time in the old high school? Whether it's remembering things like sweating in your seventh period geometry class in the upstairs hallway on a hot afternoon or remembering watching the boys basketball team win the NCCC title, they all remind us of the way things used to be. In 2000, we heard that the Board of Education was considering the idea of a new High School. Everyone became excited with the thought of a new building with up to date technology and even amenities like air conditioning. However, many of our classmates believed that we would never graduate from this building. As time wore on, contractors were hired and construction began. The date the architects projected the school to be occupied by was August 2002. The realization occurred that we would be

Mr. Jones, Principal

What was the hardest part of moving to the new school?

"The hardest part was planning how to start the school year without everything being ready. The 200 hallway was the biggest problem, with boxes in the hallway and construction work that hadn't been completed yet."

the first senior class to graduate from this building. As the first day of school was fast approaching, rumors circulated throughout the student body that we wouldn't start on time. To the dismay of some, school started as planned on August 29, 2002. Once we entered the school we were astonished at what our new school looked like, even with many sections of the building still under construction. On this day, everyone entered the school on a new journey in life. For the upperclassmen, it brought us back to our freshman year, unaware of where our classes were, or where to find our friends. As our school year went on, every thing was completed. Although it was hard to change from our original high school, with all of our memories to a new building, it now seems that it was well worth it.

What is your favorite part of the new school?

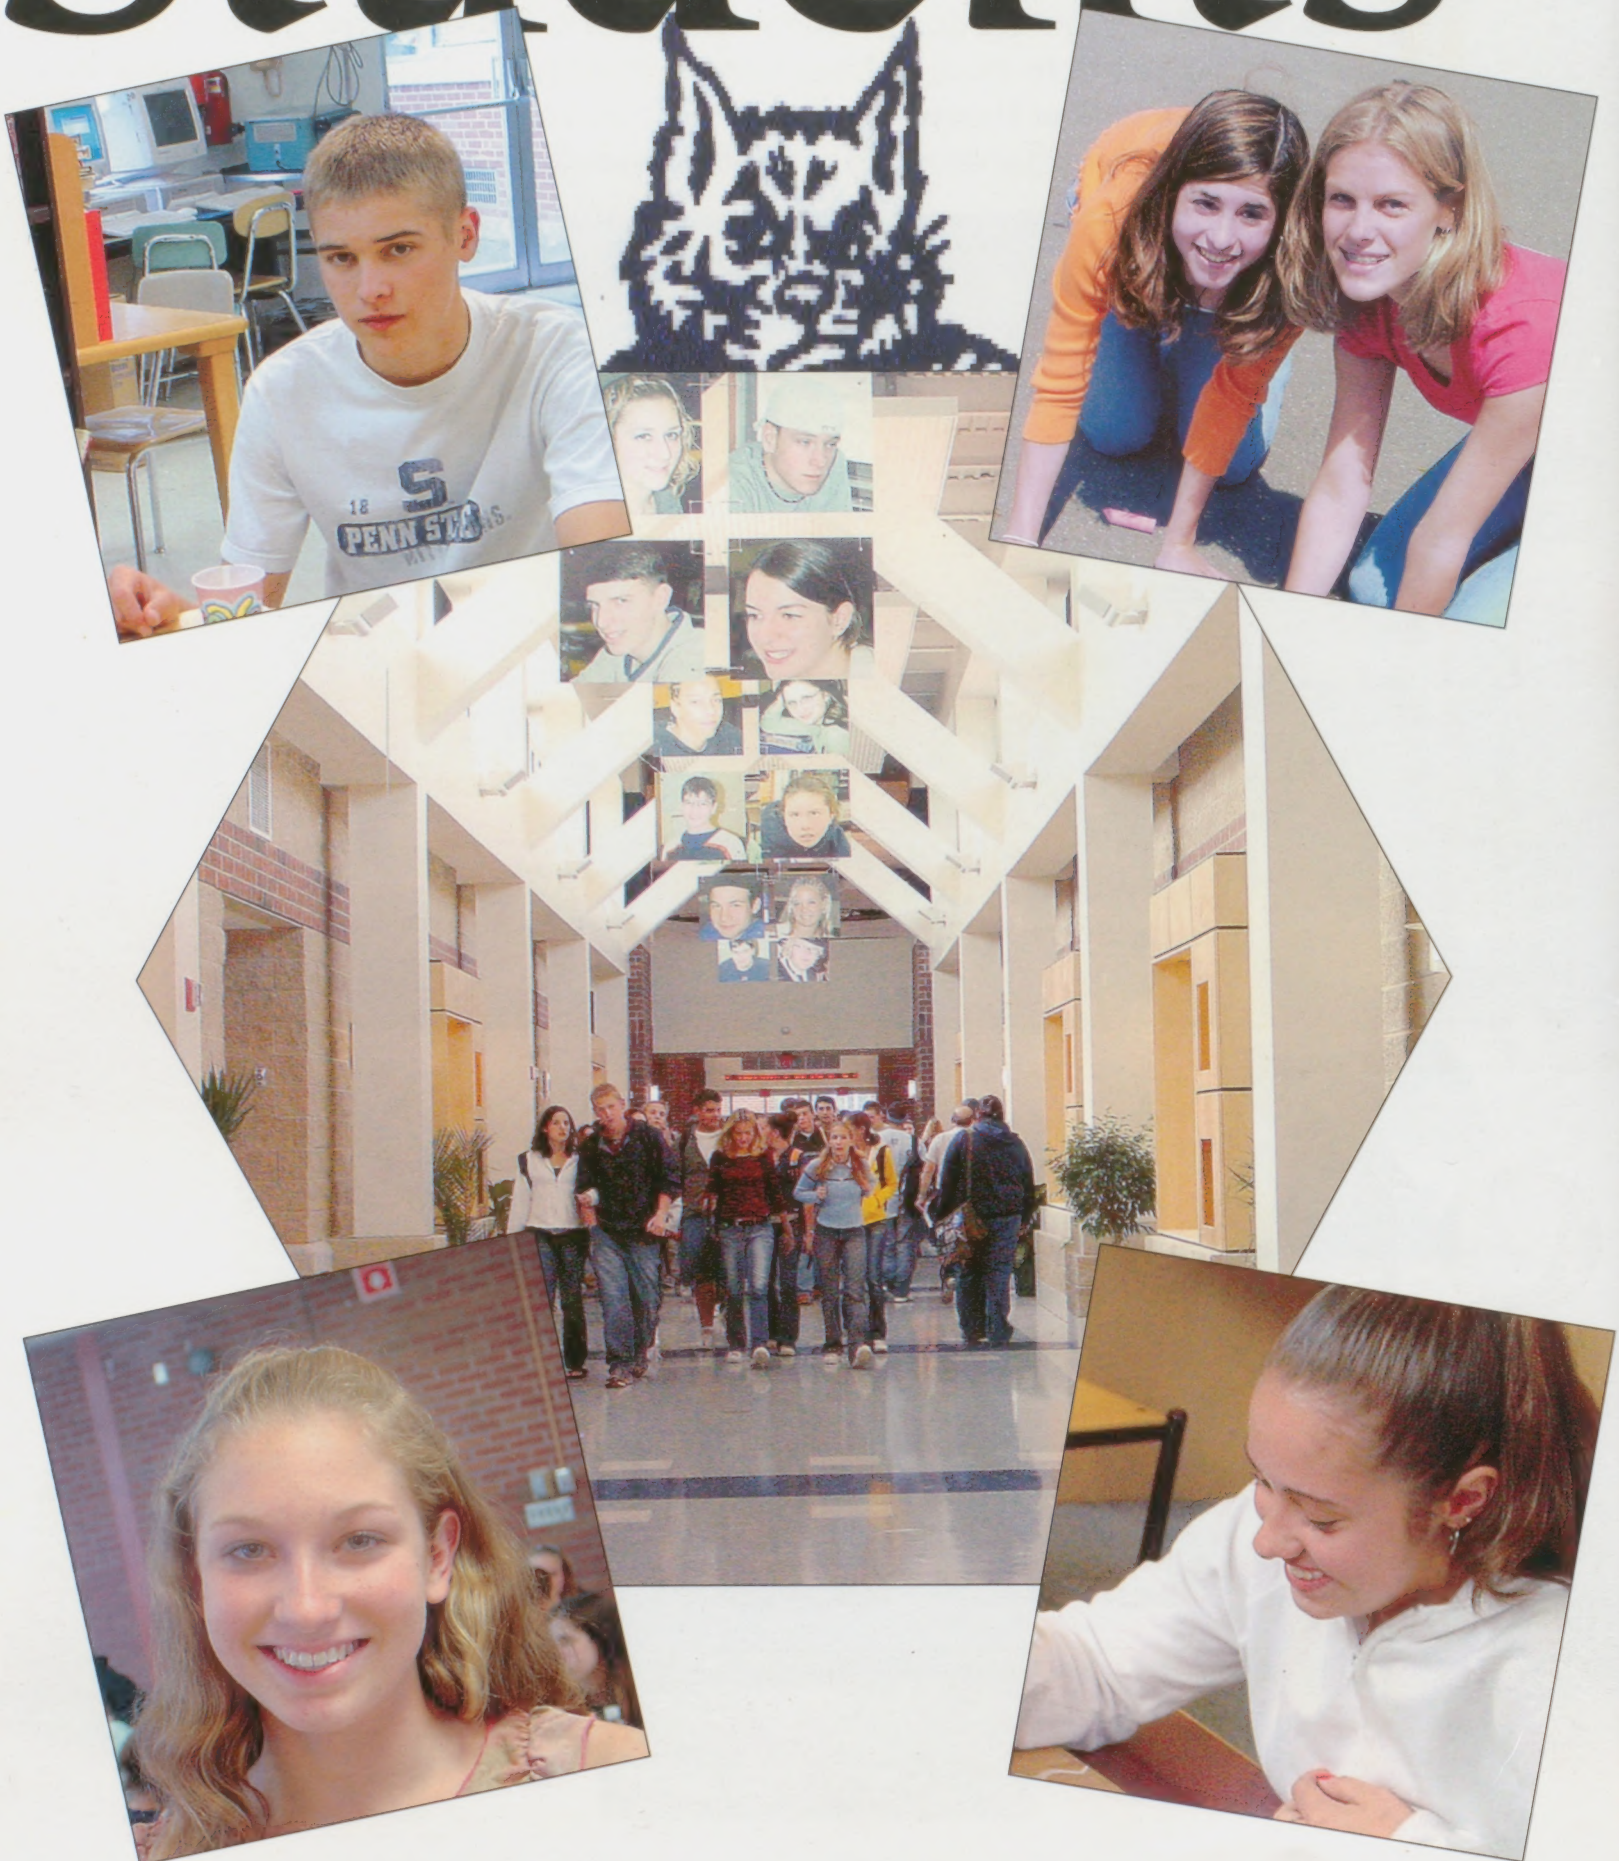

"The commons is my favorite part of the new school because it is an open area that resembles a college setting."

ADVISOR

DEDICATION

The only way for the Class Council to operate is through the Advisors. It's a common misconception that all an Advisor has to do is just "be there" and that's it. The advisor, however, is responsible for making sure that the class raises enough money, conducts itself in an appropriate manner, and take responsibility for anything that can go wrong. This year's advisors are no exception; they volunteer a lot of their time to attend meetings and special events in order to help our class earn money.

Throughout our four years at Suffield High School, our class has had four different advisors. Freshmen year began with Mrs. Martin-Ryan and Mrs. Kelly taking lead to help us with the Entertainment Book sale. The council began to work together to help raise money for the class, and they were there to help. During sophomore year, Mrs. Martin-Ryan went on maternity leave, and Mrs. Riordan graciously volunteered to serve as the Advisor in her absence. Mrs. Marting-Ryan returned at the end of the year and continued on until January, when she once again went on maternity leave. This time, Mrs. Deedy stepped forward and together with Mrs. Kelly, helped with planning future events like Prom and Semi-formal, and help to organize future fundraisers.

Without these four teachers giving their time to help our class we could never have completed what we have today. To them, our class has one thing to say:

THANK YOU!

Mrs. Kelly

Mrs. Martin-Ryan

Mrs. Deedy

SENIOR CLASS COUNCIL

The Senior Class Council has worked hard over the past four years to help raise money and schedule and plan events for the senior class. Different people have been involved over the past four years, and everybody involved has helped to make everything the Class Council does successful.

Freshmen year allowed the Council to learn how to be successful with dues, fundraisers, and Spirit Night. Our theme at Spirit Night, "Millenium Superstars," showed us just what had to be done in the years to come.

During sophomore year, we again used the Entertainment books as a fundraiser, collected dues and had a very successful Spirit Night. Our theme was from the movie Grease and allowed us to create a great skit and great backdrop.

Junior year was an even busier year; we had the climbing wall at Suffield on the Green, did entertainment books, collected dues, and did a candy fundraiser. However, this year's performance at Spirit Night was the best yet. Using the theme of Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, the entire class became one and worked together to prepare excellent backdrops, decorations, and a skit that involved everyone.

Senior year is the test of time for each Class Council, as everything done in the prior 3 years pays off. The Council organizes and runs the Semi-Formal, Prom, class trip, Senior Banquet, and finally, Graduation. Mission accomplished.

Looking

Ahead

Many of the juniors are preparing for life after high school. Some will go off to college and others will join the work force. Either way, stepping into the future can be a big change. College can be scary and exciting all at once because it's a big change. In college you get more freedom, which everyone wants, but going away to a new place and being on your own can be a little scary. Choosing a college can be hard. There are many to choose from and you want to make sure that you choose the one that is right for you. Once you figure out what you want to do you need to research colleges that have what you want. When researching you should look for certain things that might influence your choices. For example, where the college is located; do you want to live close to home or are you looking to go far away? How much does the school cost and do they offer financial aid? Both of these are important questions. Once you are there, there are many careers to choose from, but the challenge is making your decision. When you make your decision and move ahead in your career you have to keep your eyes open and explore the opportunities. Make sure you take the appropriate steps when deciding what you are going to do. Deciding what you want to do it is an important process but remember, it doesn't have to be boring. Have fun in making your decision. Always look for something new that might interest you. Whether it's a class in school or something you heard about from a friend it's never too late to try something new, especially when your future is concerned.

Friends

Forever

Friends are very important no matter what your age. Real friends are there for you in good times and in bad. The times you spend with friends make great memories. You always remember the good times, when you stayed out all night or when you had plans to do one thing, but they got ruined and everything still turned out great. Friends are also there when things aren't going well. When something serious happens or when you're just having a bad day, friends are there for you. They are there when you need advice or when you just need some one to listen to you.

In high school, friends are especially important. In the four years that you are in school a lot will happen to you. Friends will help you with all the struggles that come your way. High school can be fun but it's not always easy. Friends always seem to know how to make things a little bit better. When you're with your friends, you can relax, act yourself, and have fun, which is very important in high school.

However, you should make sure that you pick your friends wisely. Friends are great but you need to make sure that they like you for who you are. If they are really your friends then you can be yourself around them and you don't have to worry about doing something wrong or "uncool". They are there for the good and the bad. Real friends won't make you feel bad about yourself. They don't put you down and they don't make you feel like an outsider. Friends are true to you.

Friends can last a long time. Friends Forever.

Making

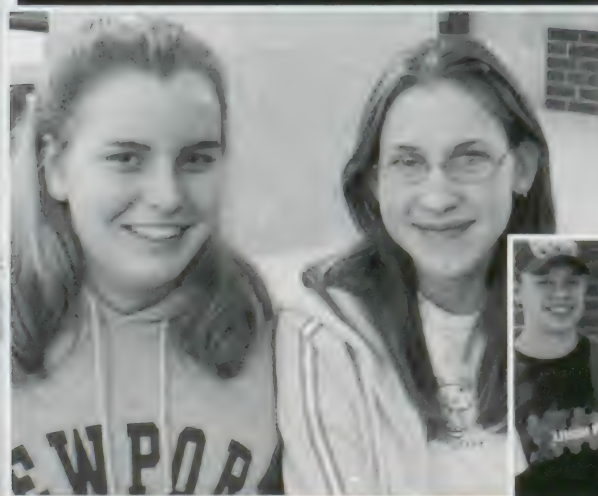

Adjustments

Going from eighth grade in middle school to ninth grade in high school is a big change. It is hard when you're used to being the oldest in a school and then suddenly become the youngest. A new school can be scary especially when you are with a lot of people you don't know. It's not fun walking through the crowded hallways looking for your classroom while everyone else seems to know where they're going. You also have to learn about the teachers. You need to know what they expect from you now that you're in high school. More responsibility is placed on you, but it's not always a bad thing. Responsibility can mean more freedom. It always takes a little while to learn new rules.

High school can be intimidating because you know that more expectation is placed on you even if you don't always know what it is. It's always helpful if you know someone in an older grade. They can help you learn from their experiences and not make the same mistakes they did. They can also help by telling you what to avoid doing so you won't upset certain teachers.

However, things do get easier as the years pass. You never know, maybe you'll be helping out freshman some day too. Either way, it's nice to know that being "new" doesn't last forever and soon you'll get used to the way things work. These four years will go by fast, so have fun.

FACULTY AND THEIR CARS

By: Vanessa Vintinner

Cars are something that everyone has been fascinated with since their beginning. Whether the car is an antique 1910 Ford Model-T or a 2003 BMW, most people will want the best car on the market during some part of their life. The following teachers have hit that point in their lives where they choose. They want a car that is fast, luxurious, and most of all, appealing. Mrs. Baumann, Mrs. Roy, Mr. Garvey, and Mr. St. Amand all knew what they wanted when they went out and bought their cars. While there are a lot of cars out on the market today, these faculty members picked their cars well, as their respective cars are shown on this page. Give it time, and soon 2003 will have some too!

STUDENT LIFE

Student life consists of a variety of organizations and clubs that meet during and after school. These clubs are met to fit everyone's abilities and/or interests. Each student puts their time and effort into perfecting the skills required for that activity. Our school has everything from FFA to Teen Theater and everything in between. Every club and organization is important to our school and community, nothing is thought to exceed another. Through the years, students have been awarded for excellence for what they do, whether it maybe for a terrific performance in a musical or in a victory in a debate. Each student who is involved in a school club or organization should be proud of how they perform and represent the school through their actions. How our fellow students perform, reflects our school and in return provides a reputation that everyone will be proud of.

Yearbook

Yearbook is more than just a class, it's a commitment from your junior year to your senior year. This year's staff consists of dedicated students who are willing to spend extra time in and out of school to make sure the yearbook exceeds everyone's expectations. Each and every page was put together with a lot of thought and precision in order to include any highlights that had occurred during the school year. This yearbook started out on paper, then went through the computer, and is now in your hands. A special thanks goes to: Jason Arch, Alli Bizeau, Shelly Chittenden, Mike DiLorenzo, Jess Doane, Garret Whitman, Aren Mitchell, Leah Olmoz, Melissa Rancourt, Malorie Senofonte, and Vanessa Vintinner.

Staff

Students Helping Society

Students Helping Society has had a very successful year.

Recently, the group has raised money for the 9/11 fund, the Joey Parise fund, the VNA as well as many other organizations. Also, the group has volunteered for Habitat for Humanity and has collected clothing for the Brightside Orphanage. The group looks forward to expanding their activities and for great years to come.

Student Activity Board

The Student Activity Board (SAB) is in charge of primarily organizing Spirit Week and Spirit Night, in addition to maybe a dance around Valentines Day.

This year, the group consisting of Kristina Miner (President), Clare Tarracciano (Vice-President), Rob Chapman (Treasurer), Cathy Olier (Secretary), Rob Fahrenholz (Senate Liaison), Tony Bermami, Betsy Drenzek, and Kassie Soni have incorporated new and original events into the Spirit Night, that prove to be both entertaining to watch as well as fun as a allows the student group to organize the events using their own ideas, yet still offers assistance and advice to help guide the members. The SAB experience has been enjoyable and successful.

Bands

Even though the band is smaller compared to past years, the music created is greater than ever, thanks to the new facility and Mr. Migliore, the conductor. The band had only two seniors, Kristy Goulding and Mary Mackinnon, who offered great leadership and who have made an impact on the band. Under these influences, the band has taken a big step forward. The coming years for the band looks to be very promising.

Math Team

This is the second year the math league at SHS has been competing and it already holds a lot of potential. The team competes in meets once a month at various schools throughout the region. These meets require determined math students who are enthusiastic about facing challenges. Students enter three individual rounds of levels from basic algebra to trigonometry, then form as a team to complete a team round. The Math League Advisor, Mr. Bouyea, is enthusiastic about a successful year.

Chess

This is the first year of the Chess Club at Suffield High School. It is a year round club which has been sanctioned by the United States Chess Federation. The club has rated, nonrated and online components. The club officers are President Brent Creighton, Vice President John Weigand and Sean McGuinness as Secretary and Treasurer.

Robotics

The FIRST Program at Windsor Locks/Suffield High has been active for 7 years. What originated in Windsor Locks with just a few students, teachers and engineers from Hamilton Standard has evolved into a large, diverse group comprised of students, teachers, and parents from both towns as well as engineers, technicians and machinists from Hamilton Sundstrand, Howment, Barnes and Horst Engineering. We can say with pride that our team ACES HIGH, serves as a role model for many teams across the United States. We not only took home the National Robotics Championship in 1999 but have also managed to earn national awards for the past two years for the innovative design of our robotics.

Debate

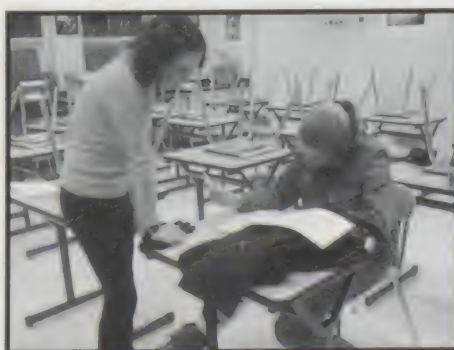

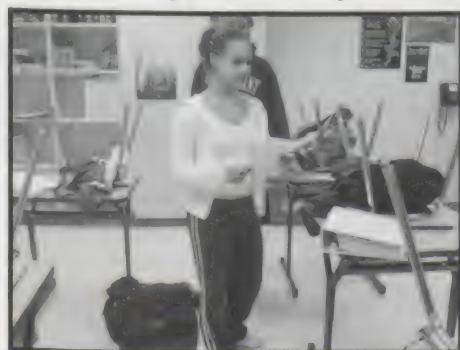

The Suffield High School Debate team has a long standing history of excellence in the field of policy debate. A group of nine individuals, the team travels to various high schools throughout southern Massachusetts, weekly debating the national topic. Our team is divided into two factions. Each two some is responsible for researching and presenting an airtight case that is subsequently judged and scored by officials.

Newspaper

The school newspaper, "The Times at SHS," has grown enormously since our founding four years ago by Jennifer Roccanti. The first issue was one slim sheet of paper which we have expanded to a twelve page monthly with a twenty person staff and three advisors- Ms. Johnson, Ms. Katz, and Mr. Cosma. Mr. Cosma has this year premiered a brand new on-line edition with which we hope to reach a broader community and make the newspaper a form for an exchange for ideas. The future is exciting, bright and expansive, and although we have a lot of work ahead of us, we are determined to make it shine.

Student Senate

Student Senate is the student government of Suffield High School. Senate consists of two representatives from every grade, a representative from each school organization and the executive members. The members listen to student's problems and try to make the school a better place for everyone. Senate also organizes activities for the students, such as dances and student field trips.

TATTOOS ARE... IN!!!

By Chris Carollo

Ever since I was very young I was amazed by tattoos and once I started drawing tattoos, I loved them even more. I began drawing tattoos for people years ago, people would see my work and ask if I could draw something for them. I've ended up drawing things like hearts, crosses, dragonflies, pin-up girls, and dozens of tribals. I've also designed four of my own. I think the most rewarding thing about it is seeing my work on someone else's body. But drawing tattoos or drawing in general isn't easy, it takes a lot of concentration and years of practice. If I'm going to draw something that's going to be on someone's skin the rest of their life, it has to be perfect. I think getting tattoos is great. Drawing them is even better and I think I'll be drawing them for the rest of my life.

Can you match the person to their tattoo?
It's harder than you think.

SPORTS

This year the Suffield High School sports teams did excellent. We had many winning teams. Those teams that did not do so well, grew as players and developed better team work. The athletic ability seems to be growing as the years go on, and it seems that next year will be even better.

WE PARTICIPATED.....

DO YOU HAVE THE COMPETITIVE EDGE?

By Malorie Senofonte, Garret Whitman, Alli Bizeau

Who isn't competitive here at Suffield High School? Winning and succeeding are very important to many of us. We achieve this by competing with other people or other schools. Teenagers don't just compete in sports, but also academics, music, art, and much more. Does competing mean a lot to you? If so, then yes, you have the competitive edge. Competitive edge means having the struggle to try to do your best at everything. Always trying to beat your opponent even if it's one of your best friends. Suffield High excels in all its sports, so of course we are a very competitive school.

Goooooal!

By: Jason Arch & Ally Klaus

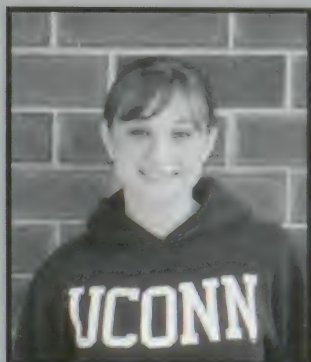

Once again, it was a tough season for the Girls Varsity Soccer team, although a big step up from last year. The team came together much better than last year, and it showed in how we played and got along off the field. Hopefully next year's team will keep improving. As far as all the seniors are concerned, I hope they were able to enjoy the experience while it lasted. Good luck to all of the girls in the future.

The boys Varsity Soccer team was under new leadership by Coach Dominic Willock. This new view allowed the team to change from their traditional style of play into a more fluent game. The team suffered several injuries throughout the season, creating a gap where many players rised to the occasion. This was a testament to everyone on the team willing to sacrifice themselves for the good of the team. The senior leadership, led by senior Captains Jeff Moreau and Trevor Timm, provided the underclassmen with excellent guidance and knowledge of the high school game. However, as strong as we played, we were never able to obtain a substantial lead in any game. With this came a big problem for us tying games. Overall, we had a strong season, but didn't appear to always have the motivation necessary to win.

Both teams this year had a fun season, even though we had to be serious at times. The underclassmen, though, were able to gain a lot of experience to carry the team in the years to come.

FROM THE SIDELINES!

By: Jason Arch & Mike DiLorenzo

The boy's and girl's JV soccer teams both had great seasons led by Coach Gabriello and Coach MacKinnon. Both teams gained valuable experience competing at a high school level, that will help them in the years to come. A part of this was the team's ability to adapt to each game, because different players would be pulled up for different games. It's not hard to say that all of these players will bring their competitiveness and skill to the next level with ease.

STICKS BLAZIN!

By: Vanessa Vintinner

Look out the Wildcats are on the loose and they are carrying sticks. This years Field Hockey team was the biggest team in three years. Led by a starting line of mostly freshmen, this years team won their first game in two years against somers. The team won the game with determination and compassion for the game. The JV team also strived and won games with their strong will and heart. With only one senior, next years team will improve. "Good luck next year girls!"

The Varsity Girls Swim Team had an amazing season led by Coach Walter Beck and the Co-captains Susan Ansman and Amber Lacivita. The girls were very close-knit this year and established a sense of unity that was never broken. Not only did the team have a winning record, but they also succeeded to place highly in Championships, qualify for States, and the State Finals, where the medley relay took sixth place. With the great leadership provided by Mr. Beck, the team will surely excel in the seasons to come. Congratulations to the Varsity girls swim team on one of the best seasons this school has seen in years.

WILL HE GO ALL THE WAY?

By: Paul Padegimas

Once again, the Suffield-Windsor Locks Co-op Football team had a tough season. However, it was a big improvement over past years. The team came together much better than last year, and this was shown through the way that we played on the field and how we got along off the field. Hopefully next year's team will keep improving. As far as the seniors are concerned, I hope that everyone enjoyed working together and had an enjoyable four years. To future generations of Suffield-Windsor Locks Co-op Football teams, good luck.

With a season record of 82-11, the boys cross-country team had a very successful year. Through the strong running of Tim Chan, Rob Chapman, Steve Bixler, Paul Alaimo, and Andrew Goff, the team proved to be very tough. A strong showing from the underclassmen makes the future of the team look bright. By placing second at the Windam Invitational, second at NCCC and fifth in states, the cross-country team proved to have a great season. The girls also had a great season, finishing third in the conference with a 17-5 record and fifth in SS state meet. Coach Dougherty commented that this team had the most heart of any team he has ever coached during his 33 year career. The team strove above all expectations, beating teams that were certain that they would beat us easily. Exceptional performances were made by all the runners, with every girl setting a personal record time in the NCCC meet. From both of us, "Good luck next year!"

NOTHIN' BUT NET!

By: Coach Aniello & Vanessa Vintinner

This year's boys and girls' basketball teams have gotten off to a rocky start. The girls are led by a new coach who has just come fresh out of retirement, Dan Sullivan. The boys are again led by Fran Aniello. These two coaches are hoping to lead both teams to states this year.

The girls' team has seven seniors this year and they hope that these leaders will bring the team some old school game. But, with the going of their number one scorer from last year these girls had a big gap to fill. To fill that gap they found two freshmen, which have stepped up their game immensely to help support the team. The girls are also led by the outstanding front court of juniors who have the experience. Coach Sullivan expresses to the girls that defense is their key to success, and so far he has proved right. Good luck to the team next year.

The boys' team has four returning seniors and all are hoping for another bid at the state championship. With the loss of last years top scorers the boys team as looked for major scoring in some other key players. The underclassmen have stepped up and have made their presence known. So, the boys have a fighting chance. In order for a repeat of a state championship the boys will have to work hard and play with heart. Good luck to the team next year.

This was an exciting year with a great group of 14 girls coming out for the freshmen team. After a rough start to the 2002-2003 season, the JV Boys Basketball team is working hard and improving everyday. The team is very young and the coaching is new to them, but I believe that once they start believing in themselves and start working together that we will be a tough team to beat.

The Freshmen Boys Basketball team is a hardworking and dedicated group. Their enthusiasm for the game stands out and will help them to be better basketball players. I enjoyed working with them very much.

By: Andrew Goff and Kristina Miner

The boys indoor track team seems that it will be very successful. With a great mix between veteran experience and new talent, the team will prove to be very strong. Led by strong performers like Tim Chan, Rob Chapman, Steve Bixler and Andrew Goff, the team is strong in the middle and long distance events. New talent will make the future for the team look very promising.

The girls indoor track team looks very promising this year, with quite a few individuals who have outstanding potential. With only about four seniors on the team, the team is fairly young. We will be contenders for team placement at the NCCC meet and many different national meets. Coach Mark Winarski joined the elite coaching staff of Rick Tyo and Joe Sinicrope, making our team one of the most well rounded and instructed teams in the conference. The combination of dedicated girls and knowledgeable, experienced coaching will help the team reach it's highest potential.

The Varsity Girls Gymnastics team had a fantastic year. While the girls had to grow accustomed to traveling to practice everyday, they managed to use their time wisely during workouts, which paid off in our competitions. The team members were each able to grow in their own events, which isn't very easy to do. The improvement is compliments of our coach, who spend so much time with us working on our routines and landings. If it wasn't for her, we wouldn't have had as successful a season as we had.

Skating for Victory!

By: Ben Denno

When the season first began we knew that we would not have as succesful a season as years before. Due to the loss of a whole starting line of defense and our starting goalie, we knew that we would be lacking talent in these areas. Although we did have some returning varsity players like Dan Brault, Ed Walsh, Ben Denno, Mike Maagero and Chris Fusick, it was not enough to make a winning season. The leadership these players brought enabled underclassmen to improve their skating and stick handling, and become better overall players. By the end of the season it seems that having these few upperclassmen on the team that it significantly helped the growth in talent of the younger players.

PUMP THE CROWD

By: Ashley Klose & Melissa Rancourt

After a summer at camp, we started our third season better than ever. With a strong connection, and great team chemistry, the 2003 Dance team was brought to a new level. We have learned many new dances that the crowd seems to enjoy. We are looking forward in challenging ourselves with new dances and an upcoming competition. Christina Ruggiero, Jess Rafalowski, Ashley Klose and Melissa Rancourt were nominated to go and dance at the halftime of the 2003 Pro Bowl this January in Hawaii. This was a great accomplishment and we are proud of all who were nominated. Although we are losing many valuable dancers after this year, we are looking forward to a bright future.

The Cheerleading Squad had a huge turn around this year and is back in action after a rocky year last year. The team is led by junior captains Amy Spadorcia and Kassie Schietlin. With two coaches and long practices every day after school the team has showed much improvement and heart in their cheers. The cheerleading squad will continue its unrivaled motivational techniques as they are a relatively young squad. Good Luck next year and keep on Cheering!

MATCH!

By: Rob Fahrenholz and Malorie Senofonte

The boys' tennis team got off to a rocky start. Although no matches were lost, several seniors graduated which left the team with many empty spots. Once the changes in positions were finalized the season moved by quickly. Suffield was the team to beat this year because of going undefeated last season. So far we are undefeated and hope to keep it up for the rest of the season. This year for the girls' tennis team was a year for development. After losing a whole starting line up, the team was limited to ten players who were all juniors and sophomores. We had just enough players to make a team. Throughout the season every team member put in her best effort in every match. That's all we were looking for. Even though we had a lot of losses, we succeeded in learning and developing skills. Even with a new coach the team adjusted well and most importantly had fun!

BATTER..... Up!

By: Jessica Doane and Coach Saunders

Last year, we lost six seniors, leaving the team with many positions to be filled. This year's season was a developing season at the least, as each day every player was learning something new. With help from Coach Presser and the captains Marisa Packard, Amber Lacivita and Deedee Presser, the season went as smooth as possible. Overall, the season was a constructive one. The Varsity baseball team ended the season with a 6 and 10 record, missing the tournament by one game. We had a couple big wins against Enfield and Avon. Devin Smith was our pitcher and helped us win these two huge upsets. With our returning big hitter Brian Sullivan, we hope to be a big threat next year.

GOING.....GOING GONE!

By: Coach Eggleston and Mike DiLorenzo

The 2002 JV baseball team finished with a record of 10-3-1. The team was successful by combining good pitching and strong hitting. The pitching staff performed extremely well. Especially, when you consider that we played 14 games, using only 3 pitchers. The team played well with a lot of heart and class the entire season. We look forward to a good year in 2003. The girls did not come out of the season with a winning record but they sure did have fun. They hope to work on their skills before next season begins and win more games.

Winning isn't Everything it's the only thing!

~Vince Lombardi

Winning is not about a scoreboard. Winning is about working to achieve and earn success. It's about putting forth the effort, and helping each player reach his or her goal in the game and most importantly, in life. Success is a piece of mind, a direct result of self-satisfaction in knowing that you did your best to become the best you can be. Coaches have the responsibility to bring out the champion in every young person they have the opportunity to work with, while teammates have the responsibility to encourage and help each other in order to achieve victory.

Every player is capable of becoming a champion of their own cause, whether it be on the field or in life. A champion is the ultimate winner. Champions are not born, they are made. When you have reached your highest level of success you have become a champion.

There is a lot of work ethic that goes into winning and being prepared to win. Your team has to aim for perfection. Hard work won't guarantee you everything, but without it you can accomplish nothing.

Make no mistake about it, you do not win championships, you earn championships!

This was definitely a developing season for lacrosse, as our second season as a varsity sport was mainly spent on the fundamentals. A good majority of the team was first-year players, many who had never picked up a lacrosse stick before. With the help of the returning players, everyone was quickly working together as team during both practices and games. Because of all of this, many doubted the success of the team this year, even doubting that we could break our record from the prior year. However, our teamwork and determination became the determining factor in our success. Although not quite a .500 season, we managed to double our winning record. With a little more work from both the upcoming freshmen and the returning players, the Suffield High School lacrosse team can only improve in the years to come.

The boys' and girls' golf teams are always a very small team. Both teams were composed of five members and two coaches, making for very small practices at Airways Golf Course. The boys' team began slowly, mainly because everyone was still getting used to playing golf again. As the season progressed however, they began to play more consistently, and therefore, able to win matches. The team was widely separated as well, consisting of three seniors, a junior, and a sophomore who all had to work together, every match, in order to win. The key to success this season was consistency and was just something that couldn't happen every match.

The girls' golf team was lacking a lot of experience this year, but managed to be successful none the less. The team consisted of one senior, two sophomores, and two freshmen, all who worked together as a team. It was a rebuilding year, spent mainly on developing skills for the underclassmen that can be utilized in seasons to come. The team also was generously given time by Airways for use of the course both during practices and matches.

The girl's track team experienced a very, successful season. Strength continued to be seen not only in our distance runners, but also in the underclassmen's abilities. Sprinters dominated short distances and others raked in points in the field events. Winning however, is not what this team has been all about. Team spirit and friendship override, as competitors celebrate successful times at the end of each race and wish luck to everyone at the line. Everyone has filled the boy's track season with great performances. The dedication of the team has allowed for a very successful season. The young team shows potential for years to come.

By: Shelly Chittenden and Jess Doane

Once the bell has rung at the end of the school day, most SHS students either go off to their sports' practices with their friends or just go home to watch TV or go on-line. Many are unaware of all the different activities that take place out of school. To some people, sports don't matter, they would rather spend their time horseback riding or uni-cycling. These students are not looking for recognition, but for the pure joy of doing something that they find amusing. Jay Calopetrio enjoys competing in mountain bike racing and says "This is something I enjoy doing and I am also pretty good at. One day I would like to do this professionally and get paid for winning races."

"During the winter I snow-board, and in the summer you can always find me at the beach."
Ashley O'Hara

"I work at an ice cream parlor during the summer and when I'm not working I'm with my friends."
Chris Bromson

"Riding is fun because it teaches you things that you can't learn in a classroom."
Tara Lench

"When I'm home I devote all my free time to my studies and work ethics."
Jamal Lawrence

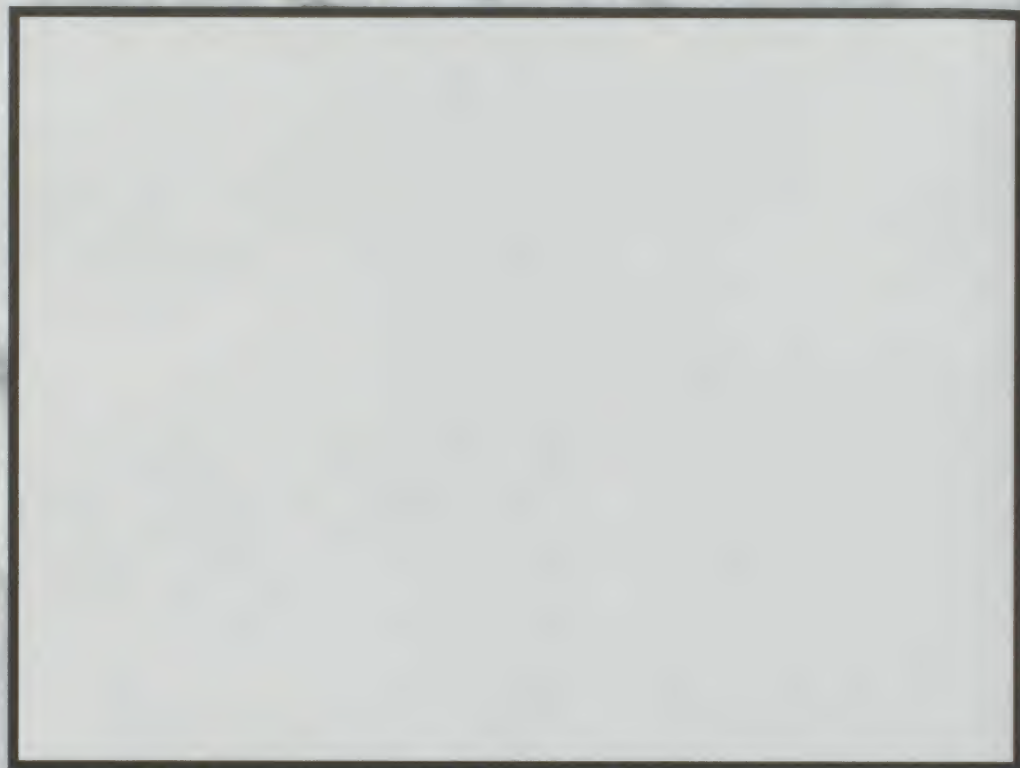

"Out of school I like to go clubbing and hang out with my friends."
Shelly Chittenden

"In my free time, during the summer I'm always at the beach or playing softball."
Jess Doane

JUNIOR/SENIOR PROM

"THERE YOU'LL BE"

The prom is a big event that everyone looks forward to all year. This year the Junior / Senior prom featured the song "There You'll Be" by Faith Hill. It took place the night of May 31st at the Sheraton Hotel in Springfield. It was a night we'll never forget. People spend lots of time getting ready, with hair appointments, pictures, ect. Everyone wants the night to be perfect and enjoyable.

Right: Amanda Dupis and Chris Olmoz slow things down with a slow dance.

SEMI-FORMAL

This year the junior and senior class made a memorable night once again by decorating the commons. It was the first Semi- Formal ever held at the new school, and everyone wondered how it would be done. When everyone did get a chance to see what it looked like, it was better than anyone could have imagined. The whole evening everyone was filled with smiles and dancing to their favorite songs. People spent their night requesting songs, laughing, and taking pictures that will last a lifetime. A special thanks goes out to the Semi-Formal committee.

Below: Sean Mackinnon is smothered by the Senior girls

Below: Toni Cigal, Ally Klaus, Ashley Klose, and Ashley O'Hara

Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road.
Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go.
So make the best of this test, and don't ask why,
It's not a question but a lesson learned in time.
It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life.
So take the photographs and still frames in your mind
Hang them on a shelf of good health and good time
Tattoos of memories at Suffield High
For what it is worth, it is worth all the while.
It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life.

Deedee,

It has been so much fun to watch you grow in to the wonderful, young woman you have become. We will miss you terribly when you go off to college, but we know that, with your sense of humor, work ethic, and optimism, you will succeed in anything you choose to do. We wish you and your friends all the best in the future. Thanks for so many great memories!
